

RONALD D. SCOTT
3245 Harrodsburg Road
Danville, KY. 40422
(859) 324-1035 (Cell)

A career in public service spanning 35 years to Kentucky Cities and their citizens. Danville, Ky. City Manager (2011-2020). Retired following twenty-six years of senior level association management experience with Kentucky League of Cities (KLC, 1975-2001), which included serving as a registered lobbyist with the Kentucky General Assembly advocating for KY cities for over 20 years. Principal in planning, developing, and implementing insurance and risk management programs to benefit KLC and its members. Over twelve years service as KLC's Director of Insurance & Risk Management administering group self-insured programs (liability, property, workers' compensation, other). Assisted in formation of NLC-Mutual Insurance Company (a Vermont captive) and served on its' Board of Directors (1987-1999), Chairman of the Underwriting Committee (1991-1999) and member of the Executive Committee (1991-1999).

Following retirement from KLC, Registered lobbyist for Preservation Kentucky 2002 and 2004. After 9 years of service as Danville City Manager, served as Danville Rotary Club President (2021-2022), Treasurer, Vestry member of Trinity Episcopal Church, Danville, KY (2020-2022), Secretary-Treasurer of Boyle Landmark Trust (2020-2022); Danville Regional Arts Board member (2020-21), and other local community board service.

SELECTED ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Worked to create first city-county workers compensation group in Ky. (1978)
- Created unemployment insurance program for KY cities/agencies (1979)
- Successful lobbying for enactment of KY "Home Rule" legislation in 1980
- National Team member to create and manage NLC-Mutual Insurance Company (1984-1999)
- Worked to create, manage KY liability and property program (1987-2001)
- Principal in re-creating KY workers' compensation program and manage (1995-2001)
- Team member to create, manage in-house KY insurance agency (1995- 2001)
- Managed Danville Award-Winning Water Expansion Project ($27 million)
- Development and Management of $50 Million Annual Budget, Danville, KY
- Selected as Sister-City Ambassador to Carrickfergus, NI in 2015
- Rotary President, 2021-22; service on other local Boards in Danville, KY

EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL

Bachelor of Arts (Political Science/Sociology, double major), Western Kentucky University (WKU), 1972 and Master's Degree in Public Administration (Public Service), (WKU), 1975. Associate in Risk Management (ARM) designation from Insurance Institute of America, 1991. Chair Bluegrass RIMS, 1998. Leadership Kentucky Graduate, 1998. National League of Cities John G. Stutz 25 Year Service Award, 2001. Lifetime Membership, KY City-County Management Association, 2001. KLC designation Master of City Government, 2019.

PERSONAL

Ron and his wife Janis, married for 41 years, live on a historic farm located in Danville, Kentucky. They have two successful adult children and five grandchildren living in both Kentucky and Colorado.. Personal interests include assisting his wife Janis, a “master gardener” in growing flowers and tending bees, sailing, bicycling, photography, horology, and traveling. Personal physician advised Ron in 2022 that he was in “excellent health...for a man his age” 😊!

REFERENCES

References are available upon request. They include former co-workers and supervisors, former state legislators, current and former state municipal league directors, city managers, elected officials, college professors, members of clergy, and others.